

PRESS RELEASE – DELSOL Avocats takes part in the Spring TELFA Conference

11 June 2018 - The Spring TELFA (The Trans-European Law Firm Alliance) Conference took place in London on 24, 25 and 26 May 2018

TELFA was founded in 1989. The member firms have known each other and worked together for years.

TELFA now has an affiliation with USLAW giving all TELFA clients access to the same quality of service in the United States.

TELFA member firms now have more than 1000 lawyers throughout Europe, and including USLAW the network consists of 6000 professionals.

In its capacity as TELFA member firm, DELSOL Avocats took part in the last Spring TELFA Conference which focused on the real estate sector and the reasons behind London's continued success as a desirable market.

The Conference speakers discussed why London remains a "hot" city for investment in real estate and the implications of Brexit from a variety of perspectives.

Over 60 TELFA and USLAW representatives were in attendance.
